Biryani

The name "biryani" is derived from the Persian word berya(n), which means "fried" or "roasted". Biryani is a family of primarily South Asian rice dishes made with spices, rice (usually basmati) and meat/ vegetables. This dish is normally served with yogurt sauce, fresh sliced tomato, onion, and cucumber, and nan bread. It was spread throughout the Middle East and South Asia by Muslim travelers and merchants and is very popular in India, Pakistan and Bangladesh.
